

Program Objectives:

On completion of two years of M.Sc Nursing program, the graduate will be able to

1. Utilize/apply the concepts, theories and principles of nursing sciences.
2. Demonstrate advance competences in nursing practice.
3. Practice as a nurse specialist.
4. Demonstrate leadership qualities and function effectively as nurse educator and manager.
5. Demonstrate skill in conducting nursing research, interpreting and utilizing the findings from health related research.
6. Demonstrate the ability to plan and bring changes in nursing practice and in the health care delivery system.
7. Establish collaborative relationship with members of other disciplines.
8. Demonstrate interest in continued learning for personal and professional advancement.

Program Outcome:

PO No	Attributes	Competencies
PO1	Integration of Nursing Science into Practice	Utilize advanced nursing theories, models, and principles in clinical decision-making.
PO2	Expertise in Clinical Nursing	Demonstrate mastery in advanced nursing procedures and interventions.
PO3	Role as a Nurse Specialist	Provide advanced patient care, including diagnosis, treatment, and management of health conditions.
PO4	Effective Nurse Educator and manager	Function as a nurse educator to train future nursing professionals and patients.
PO5	Research skills and application	Conduct nursing and health-related research using scientific methodologies.
PO6	Teamwork and interdisciplinary approach	Facilitate communication and collaboration among healthcare team members for patient-centered care.
PO7	Continuous learning and self-improvement	Engage in continuing education programs for skill enhancement and professional growth.