Message from the hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Era University

Dear Students,

It gives me immense pleasure that our university is launching its first Students Literary Magazine, ESLM which showcases a diverse range of literary and artistic abilities that characterize the Era University community. This magazine offers the students a platform on which they can paint their ideas, offer opinions, and relate their stories.

The magazine will help to foster their literary prowess which will bloom within these pages. Moreover, the inclusion of group photographs has immortalized the cherished moments spent together, serving as a memento of the bonds forged during their time at Era University.

We encourage the students to participate wholeheartedly, embracing this opportunity to leave their mark on University's legacy. Let this magazine serve as a symbol of shared history, highlighting the variety of skills and the cohesion that characterizes student community.

My compliments to the English Department and congratulations to Dr Rupali Mirza, Chief Editor, and the hardworking and talented team of Assistant Editors of the English Department.
